

Dagg 101154-0005

Dagg is a discrete textural pattern with a timeless expression, created by Kazuyo Nomura, a renowned designer and a true textile artist. The simple intersecting lines blends nicely with the fabric's delicate linen-like texture. The updated colour range as a warm and tranquil expression. The versatile palette is inspired by nature. The base of earth- and mineral tones is complemented by the ever-changing blue and grey hues of the sea, as well as green and yellow tones of leaves and grasses.

We thought you'd like...

- the humble expression makes Dagg easy to combine with prints and plains in the Almedahls range
- how the fabric filters the light, making it perfect both in windows and as a delicate room divider
- the beautiful matching colour scheme with Almedahls design classic Rango
