

Happy 100164-0200

Happy is a playful, graphic design composed by the skilled textile artist Kazuyo Nomura. The geometric pattern with its hand-painted irregularities truly makes the design come alive. The striking simplicity and the thoughtfully developed colour ways adds interest and personality to any space. Happy works excellent as a room divider and is printed on a sheer textured fabric which filters the light in a beautiful way.

We thought you'd like...

- the lovely playfulness of the design
- the transparency and texture of the fabric
- the delicate filtering of the light
