MORRIS 100184

MORRIS, created by designer and interior architect Maria Löw, presents a captivating play with layers of leaf shapes. The composition of monochrome silhouettes and shapes with tonal effects gives the design a fascinating depth and a sense of lightness. The natural forms and carefully selected colours bring a warm feeling to the environment, and the four versatile colour schemes make it easy to find a suitable colourway for any project.

The design's sense of depth and lightness, the delightful texture of the fabric, and the versatile colour schemes make MORRIS an excellent choice for various settings.
